NARBERTH, PENNSYLVANIA, AUGUST 12, 1938

PRICE, FIVE CENTS

Answering Miss Brinton's Letter About Sidewalks and Things, . . .

The son of Richard H. Wallace, Sr., (first President of Borough Council, 1895-97, and Burgess 1904-06), writes this:

Editor Elwood:

As a citizen and home-owner of Narberth who was born here and moved away in 1913 only to come back and purchase a home a few months ago, I would like to disagree with the opinion of Miss Brinton.

First—Requesting removal of the cannon at the corner of Windsor avenue and Wynnewood road where the monument is erected to the memory of our heroic dead and also to those who volunteered to go to the aid of our country in the World War.

Second—To her objection to the ruling of our civic authorities who have requested repairs to unsafe pavements.

In the first instance, I will not go into a lengthy discourse regarding the removal of the cannon, for no freedom-loving American will give this idea a serious thought.

Regarding the paving which Miss Brinton states she is glad to know at least 25 residents had the independence to voice their objections: I feel sure several times that number concur in my opinion that by fixing the pavements, the general appearance, safety for everyone concerned and the fact that quite a few men have been given employment, have added enough advantages to overcome the small expenditure placed upon the individual owner.

Narberth—Progress

When my family left Narberth we had no such advantages here as we have now, and while traveling around I have never found a town or borough which has so many advantages at so little cost as Narberth. To

Claude K. Stahl

Services Were Wednesday. He Died of a Stroke.

Claude Keller Stahl, who had lived in Narberth ten years, died Monday evening at his home, 516 Essex, following a stroke that morning.

The funeral was conducted Wednesday evening by the Rev. Vernon W. Middleton in the Narberth M. E. Church, of whose official board Mr. Stahl was a member. His passing is lamented by a large number of friends. Services also were held Thursday at Center Hall, Pa., where he was born, June 19, 1885.

Mr. Stahl is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Baird Stahl; his mother, a brother and sister in Center Hall; and his stepson, Thomas Hawthorn.

Mr. Stahl started to work for the Pennsylvania Railroad in Pittsburgh as a switch tender. A few months later he became a car repairman, but since August 9, 1905, he was engaged in clerical work, first in the Altoona Machine Shop offices, then in Harrisburg in the office of the superintendent of motive power, and since September 1, 1920, in Philadelphia in the office of the general superintendent of motive power, where he advanced to statistician on March 1, 1927. On September 1, 1932, he was appointed supervisor of motive power statistics, which position he held at the time of his death.

Around the Town

Storms last week continued to beset the Main Line, so that when the weather report Tuesday predicted clear weather for a whole day in advance, there was rejoicing. . . . During the downpours Haverford avenue, in Narberth, continued to look like a river, and there was one time when it looked as if the town could have a swimming pool without necessity for building one. . . . That was when the water invaded the cellar of the 5 and 10c store opposite the station, and covered the sidewalk a foot high. . . . Sunday night, apple dunking was popular when the storm washed apples down the watercourse past Davis' store. During one of the storms, a bolt of lightning smashed down a Lombardy poplar on Hervey C. Keim's place, 202 Dudley.

Gene Davis' return home, under quarantine, from Hahnemann Hospital is expected any day now. He is recovering nicely from his recent siege of typhoid.

Lang's Dining Room

Will be at 114 Narberth avenue, behind the Media Drug, starting Monday. Martin Lang has leased W. J. Butler's house and is moving there this week-end from the Grayling avenue house opposite the Presbyterian Church, where his dining room clashed with zoning restrictions.

The Langs have been in business in Narberth 18 years, first on Narberth avenue, then at 205 Haverford, which was bought recently by Hyman Ricklin.

The Incinerator

In Penn Valley Will be the Subject, September 7,

Of a public hearing, at the Township Building in Ardmore. The hearing notice, giving intention of proceeding with construction of the incinerator, is required by the recently adopted amendment to the township zoning ordinance, and was decided upon by the Commissioners last week.

The zoning amendment is the subject of a bill in equity still before the Montgomery County Court. A decision is awaited from Judge William F. Dannehower.

It was announced that the firm which was awarded the contract last year, H. R. Dickens, Philadelphia, had accepted the PWA provisions regarding hour wage rates and working hours per week.

Under provisions of the PWA grant of $18,150, which has been approved by the authorities at Washington and accepted by the township, work was supposed to start on the plant by August 20. An extension will be sought in order to comply with the requirements of the ordinance and hold the hearing set for September 7.

The zoning amendment, being fought by a group of residents of Penn Valley and West Manayunk, provides that the township may erect any building deemed necessary for the public welfare in any part of the township without regard to the zoning of the ground.

It was pointed out that if litigation were not pending affecting the incinerator site, an advance payment of $16,000 on the grant for preliminary work already done would be made by the PWA. Securing the grant also means a saving of nearly $50,000 to the taxpayers of the township, commissioners pointed out.

The site selected for the incinerator is near Mary Waters Ford road and Jefferson street, in West Manayunk, on the slope of a 30-acre tract owned by the township.

Combined Circles

Of the Women's Guild of the Narberth

Presbyterian Church will meet on the lawn of Mrs. Edward S. Haws, 109 Dudley avenue, at 2 P. M., next Thursday, the 18th. All the women of the church and congregation are urged to attend. In case of rain the meeting will be held at the church.

Mrs. B. M. McSeveney, vice-president of the guild, will be in charge.

Mrs. A. S. Digby, chairman of study leaders, will present the Bible study. Her topic will be, "Service Opportunities Revealed by the Press."

The Evening Circle, of which Mrs. John Nash is chairman, will meet on the lawn of Mrs. H. C. Nold, 100 Wynnedale road, at 6.30 P. M. Supper will be served before the meeting. Mrs. Herbert C. Hebsacker will lead the Bible study.

The Girls' Circle, Miss Jerene Hayward, chairman, will meet at the home of Miss Doris Berry, 222 Essex, at 8 P. M. Mrs. T. C. Dunlap will present the Bible study.

In spite of the warm weather the attendance at these summer meetings has kept up well and much interest and enthusiasm has been manifested. This will be the last meeting of the combined circles.

There will be no guild meeting in September, but all the circles will meet individually in the homes of members.

W. Howard Haws, the hardware man, has returned from a trip to California. He motored there in five days and back in seven; spent ten weeks in California, where his mileage was 4500.

As Friendly

As the Friends, Were the Indians Here.

—And Gay Croyle, addressing the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Tuesday, told about them. The Leni Lenapi and Delaware were called "women" by the more fierce nations; but they were not afraid to fight; they simply preferred not to. And the Quakers treated them right.

In fact, said Mr. Croyle, none of the American redskins were warlike until the coming of white men, guns and injustice.

His reason for discussing Indians was that his ancestors were partly Dutch, partly Scotch and partly Indians.

A contractor, Mr. Croyle was working not long ago near Dove Lake, Haverford, when Indian relics were dug up. He showed his fellow-Rotarians some of the soupstone dishes, which also served as cooking pots.

Mr. Croyle was born near State College, in Bradford County there is a Croyle Township. He moved to Merion in 1910, and in 1912 established his contractor-nurseryman business, with headquarters at his Penn Valley Nurseries, Centennial road.

Among his experiences, he told of working his way to Europe as nursemaid to cattle on a boat; and of enlisting soon after the United States entered the war, as a buck private, to return home a commissioned officer in the engineers.

"An International Police Force" will be the topic of next Tuesday's speaker, who comes by courtesy of L. Stanley King, Cynwyd druggist.

Merion Park

Led the Way to a Higher Zone Classification

Last week, when the Township Commission approved a change from a "D" district, permitting twin houses, to "B" and "B-1" districts, allowing only single family houses. The ground affected lies on both sides of Maplewood avenue, from Woodbine to the General Wayne playfield. Usually requests are made by owners and builders, and sometimes granted, to lower the classification.

John and Conrad Albrecht, who previously had objected to a change sought by J. Franklin Moss & Co., agreed to the rezoning, which permits development of the section.

An ordinance was adopted plotting the right of way of Wynnewood road, from Lancaster avenue to Penn road, Wynnewood, on the township plan to a width of 60 feet. Parker S. Williams, representing the Shortridge Estate, has dedicated 20½ feet on one side of the road and an additional six feet will be sought from property owners on the west side.

This is a preliminary to widening Wynnewood road, relieving a traffic hazard that may soon be worsened.

More Apartments

A petition was received from the Shortridge Estate, Parker S. Williams, for a change in zoning of a tract along Wynnewood road, from Lancaster avenue to Penn road, to a "C" residence district. It is now in a business and "B" residence district.

Construction of a series of two and three story apartments, which would occupy 20 per cent of the land area of a ten acre tract is planned. The board fixed September 21, as the date for a public hearing.

A request for a zoning change from Miss Mary K. Gibson, of Wynnewood, was tabled by the board because of insufficient data.

House-Watching

In Vacation-Time is Put on Efficiency Basis.

A set of rules was listed by Roland Fleer, Public Safety Committee chairman, at Borough Council meeting Monday night, requiring Narberth residents to mind their P's and Q's if they want their homes looked after by the police while they are away.

There has been a heavy demand for inspection service, which consists of three inspections a day; "this property protection consumes officers' time that must also be spent in protecting lives," Mr. Fleer said, and he added that 16 doors and windows were found open recently in the 42 vacation-vacated houses that were in police care.

"Demands for this service have reached such proportions that it appears advisable to impose some qualifications and restrictions on its being rendered." Inspection will hereafter be undertaken—

1) Provided expected absence is reported to Ardmore police headquarters, and date and time of departure and estimated return are stated.

2) Provided the property will be totally uninhabited during that period.

3) Provided the absence will not be unreasonably protracted. No inspection will be made after two months, unless a renewed request is made and a reasonable explanation for further absence is given.

4) Provided the return is reported promptly, including unexpected temporary returns.

Borough Building

Permits Issued During July:

Hyman Ricklin, alterations to the three floors of his building at 205 Haverford avenue, $3300.

J. M. O'Connor, 501 Berkeley road, $7000 new house.

Dr. Frank Barker, 151 Merion, $150 roof; M. L. Lacey, 105 Rockland, $150 alteration; J. A. Bailey, 112 Conway, $40 window; C. C. Herron, 117 Woodside, $150 alteration, and Lillian Jones estate, 105 S. Narberth, $165 alteration.

A total of $10,955, plus $1642 in oil burners: Charles Clarke, 106 Chestnut; A. R. T. Supple, 315 Woodside, and Joseph O'Keefe, 325 Conway.

Inspector George B. Supple also reported keeping busy during the month at the new Narberth Apartments, making 18 building inspections and 15 oil-burner check-ups.

Smothered

Accidentally in Her Crib, the Twin Baby

Of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cotter, 401 Essex, Narberth, died about 10.30 last Friday night. Joan, six months old, pulled the rubber bed sheet over her mouth; its warmth caused it to stick. This was soon after her mother had looked at her to be sure she was all right for the night.

A pulmonator, rushed by Lower Merion police, failed to revive her. Dr. John D. Donnelly, 115 Bryn Mawr avenue, Cynwyd, was summoned and pronounced the baby dead.

Services were held last Saturday. Jack Cotter is a son of the Narberth food merchant, Howard F. Cotter. The Cotters have a four-year-old girl, Jackie, and the surviving twin, June.

At a Meeting

Of Republican Committee members and workers of Lower Merion, in Chateau Colotte, Lancaster avenue, Ardmore, plans for registering voters were discussed Monday night. Magistrate Franklin P. Kromer, of Cynwyd, acted as chairman of the meeting. House-to-house canvasses are planned to obtain as near 100 per cent registration of eligible voters as is possible.

A real estate development permit was approved for the construction of Grassmere road, Cynwyd, from Oak-hill road, to the Meagher line. Permits were also granted for construction of watercourses on Beech road, Rosemont and Gypsy lane, Wynnewood.

It was announced that plans have been filed at Harrisburg for the re-location of Lafayette road, Gladwyne, in order to eliminate several sharp curves and steep grades. Carrying out of the work is contingent upon receiving necessary deeds of dedication.

First Step is Taken to Improve Appearance of Boro Business Block

"Lafayette, We are Here!"

In Bryn Mawr, an $81,000 house, according to a permit just issued, will be built by David M. Hunt. It is on Lafayette road. Its owner is Edward S. Wagner, whose present home, in Merion Park, is 532 Lafayette road.

G. H. Williams, 221 Derwen road, Merion, was nominated commander of the Thomas D. Vandiver Post, American Legion, Bala-Cynwyd, Tuesday. Election is September.

Borough Council

At its Meeting Monday Night Also:

Heard Roland Fleer, public safety chairman, report that Burgess Frank Schrepfer's police campaign on all-night parking has reduced offences to one last month, and that complaints about lack of enforcement of stop signs caused the police to arrest seven motorists for violations that might have caused accidents. "The bearing down will continue." There were ten accidents with personal or property damage in the borough last month.

Received a letter from Mrs. Mary T. Drew, of the Narberth Library, thanking council for the recent improvements . . . freshness and brightness within and well-placed plantings without.

Completion (July 5-28) of the Grayling avenue sewer was noted. . . . Road surface will be patched soon.

On recommendation of Walter A. Fox' Highway Committee, recent bids for a dump truck were rejected and new proposals authorized (per advertisement in this issue).

Purchase of equipment not to exceed $450 was authorized, to facilitate cleaning of sanitary and storm sewers.

Wider Setback From Street is Proposed.

Borough Council Monday night passed on first of three required readings, an amendment to the Narberth zoning ordinance, adding 15 feet to the present 10-foot setback of buildings from the curb line. The change, affecting new buildings and also existing ones when alterations are made, establishes a setback 40 feet from the center line of the roadway, throughout the town. Roads 30 feet wide can be considered to include 15 feet of the 40, making the setback from curb a matter of 25 feet.

The amount of setback is tentative. The amendment to the ordinance will be submitted to the Narberth Planning Commission for recommendations.

Three factors probably influenced Council in starting the ball rolling for a general elevation of borough building standards:

1) The huge new apartment house, now a-building. Wider setbacks will influence construction of further structures.

2) The Planning Commission's recent traffic survey in the business district. As indicated last week, a dangerous and inconvenient congestion requires remedy. Eventual uniform setback of stores to the point exemplified by Howard Cotter's, will afford opportunity for beautifying the business district, allowing motorists better vision at street corners, and paving the way perhaps to widening of Haverford avenue.

3) Recent application by one business man for permission (so far denied) to bulge his store front over his wide pavement; and the extensive alterations at Ricklin's store (see separate item on building).

Field Day

At the Narberth Playground Next Wednesday

—Or Thursday, in the event of rain; or Friday if Thursday, too, is wet. And if Friday, too, is rainy; but after all—

So if it's clear Wednesday, visit the field at 2 P. M. and see the award of prizes for the best work in handicraft; and tennis cups will be awarded. Races of every variety for all ages groups will be staged, with prizes for the winners.

Folk dance. . . . Tumbling. . . . Pyramids.

Last week—

Tuesday morning a balloon tournament for boys and girls was captured by Mary Jane Cabrey and Lawrence Plantholt, who had a long hard battle with Billie Webb.

Tuesday the juniors enjoyed a badminton tournament, won by David Duncan.

Thursday more rain, delaying the senior girls' tennis tournament, which finally got under way Friday. Contestants are asked to continue play without delay.

A doll show brought out many beautiful dolls, making a judges' decision difficult. A little French doll whose mistress is Mary Jane Cabrey, won first prize by eleven points. Miss America, owned by Mary Olive Bates, won second prize by seven points. Miss Sally Lacey's Mama Dolls, so neatly clad in blue, won third prize, with six points.

Narberth Baseball

Narberth managed to keep its nose ahead of the pack in Main Line League duelling over the week-end even though Jack Jefferies' laborers had to be content with a split bill.

On the home grounds Saturday Ardmore nosed out the defending champs, 4-3. It was the first time an Ardmore team met Narberth in Main Line League competition in twelve years.

That licking by Ardmore was pretty hard to take and the boys around Davis' store were moaning about "what might have been." Nevertheless, there it was and Narberth, like a real champion, decided to go out and do something about it.

enumerate a few I will mention the following:

A free library, a real community center and athletic field where young and old can enjoy all kinds of clean wholesome sports at no cost, an up and coming town paper, competent stores and business and professional men to whom we should give our trade, and an unequalled Memorial Day and Fourth of July celebration.

These have made the name of Narberth synonymous with Progress.

We also have a wonderful community spirit, championship baseball teams and, in fact, a swell town, so let's go along and give a lot of boosts.

Here's for a Swimming Pool...

I agree heartily with Miss Brinton that we should have a swimming pool and skating pond, and if the borough authorities see fit to appoint a committee for starting one, will contribute my proper share for same.

RICHARD H. WALLACE.

The former chairman of the Highway Committee writes:

Editor Elwood:

The letter which Miss Ellen Starr Brinton sent to you and to outside newspapers for publication last week would have been a commendable indication of alert citizenship, if she had not included a gossiping innuendo that was intended to reflect on the personal character and integrity of the members of the Borough Council in general and of Councilman Walter A. Fox in particular because, as chairman of the Highway and Sewer Committee, he was obliged to send out the orders requiring sidewalk repairs.

After remarking how people will think and talk, as though she were only passing into print what she had heard, Miss Brinton said, "Is every property owner being pressed with exactly the same rigidity regardless of social, political or business standing?" Possibly my social, political and business standing would place me in the favored group which Miss Brinton had in mind. I am glad to testify, therefore, that a repair order was served on me to replace cement that I personally would not have condemned and that, when I spoke to Mr. Fox about it, he said that he thought the order against me was reasonable and that compliance would be expected. I have given a contractor instructions to do the work.

As I understand it, Miss Brinton serves certain altruistic causes, which are designed to improve the lot of mankind, but she is paid for doing so. Mr. Fox and his associates in the Borough Council serve the community interests of their fellow citizens without compensation of any kind. The position of highway chairman is an arduous one, as I know from personal experience, but it carries with it the satisfaction of a large opportunity for serving the cause of local self government.

The only drawback to such service is when intelligent and presumably high-minded citizens will cast aspersions on one's personal character in a way that they would never think of doing in private life. Is one who serves his town with unselfish devotion less meritorious than one who similarly serves his church, or his lodge or a work for boys or girls? And where shall we rate those who put their altruism and their zeal for social improvement on a strictly professional basis?

ROBERT F. WOOD.

tioning last week, with an illness that as OUR TOWN went to press caused his family and three doctors great concern.

Dog owners are warned by Burgess Frank Schrepfer to keep the pets on their property or on leash—or licenses as well as unlicensed dogs may be picked up by police officers if they are at large. Several adults and children have been attacked by dogs in the borough lately.

The Air Mail display that won a national prize for Philadelphia's postmaster, has been loaned the Narberth post office. On display in the windows, it shows rare covers of foreign lands and routes of service, foreign and also domestic, the latter being marked with lights.

Shen's drug store, first on the Main Line to be air-conditioned, is so much so these hot days that it wouldn't be a bad idea to provide overcoats for the customers.

Mrs. P. A. Wales, of Windsor avenue, who has a guest cottage for the summer at 810 Plymouth Place, Ocean City, writes to "express our pleasure in responses obtained through advertising in your paper. The results far exceeded our expectations."

OUR TOWN, which becomes TOWN AND TOWNSHIP September 16, has been gaining township subscribers right and left, this dull month or so of the year... which augurs well for the coming season. And your editor takes this occasion to express his appreciation to the readers who are showing their liking for the paper by renewing subscriptions for two years.

Three youths of about 20, of Philadelphia, are being held by the police, charged with the July 22 hold-up of the gasoline station at Wynnewood road and Lancaster pike; the house-breaking last Friday of Thomas P. Talbot's home, 256 Henley road, Penn Wynne, and Philadelphia burglaries.

For the first time in over a year, no new contagious disease has been reported in the township for a week's period.

Fifth annual Lower Merion Police Pistol Match was held last Saturday on the township range, Wynnewood road just below Narberth. Pennsylvania Motor Police won with a score of 1487, only five points below the world record. Lower Merion Police No. 1 team finished second with 1483, topping 40 others. There were 42 teams, 210 men. Brady Utz, former Narberth patrolman, member of Lower Merion No. 1 team, placed seventh among 75 individuals with a 298.

The Jefferiesmen left their home lair a day later and trimmed the Gladwyne charges of Jimmy Keyes by 4-0 figures. Keyes, incidentally, is a former Narberth shortstopper.

Al Herrmann was the losing hurler Saturday when Tommy Loftus hurled ball that deserved to bring a victory. Herrmann fanned seven and walked one, but was banged for six hits in the fifth when Ardmore picked up all its runs.

Loftus gave up a run in the opener when Tanny Ralston walked and scored on Buddy Walker's triple to left-center. The other two runs were driven home in the last attempt at bat, when Bill Caldwell slapped a three-bagger.

Ed Sullivan's crew outthit our boys by nine to seven and gave an exhibition of sparkling play which seems to show that they will be a valuable addition to the circuit.

Harry (Twinkletoes) Fox stepped into a Merriwell toga on Sunday when his hitting exhibition set Narberth fandom's blood pressure up a dozen points or more. The diminutive centerfielder came up with a timely homer and triple which accounted for two of Narberth's runs.

One run countered in the first when Ralston binged and crossed on Walker's one-base hit. In the fifth frame two more were added. Jack Eachus got a life on an error at short and Pitcher Bud Clancy sacrificed. Ralston singled Eachus home and after Caldwell fled to right, Fox banged away for his triple to center which scored the second run.

Then, in the seventh, Fox hit one of the longest homers ever seen at Gladwyne. The ball landed in the tennis courts deep in left field.

Clancy, who used to pitch here, returned after a sojourn in Canada. He worked a nice game. Gladwyne got six safeties, but threatened only in the third, when they loaded the bases. Clancy struck out six and walked one. Georgie Severn, the losing chucker, was tagged for ten blows, Roger Malseed adding a double to Fox's great work. Severn whiffed two and passed one.

The locals will meet Drexel Hill away tomorrow and return to the home lot to pull hair with Manoa Sunday.

3 Comrades, 3 Blind Mice, 2 Other Good

Shows are at the Narberth Theatre. Let's discuss the first first. Erich Marie Remarque ("All Quiet on the Western Front") wrote it—a love story, tender, exciting—nicely portrayed by Robert Taylor, Margaret Sullivan, Franchot Tone and Robert Young... now playing.

"Three Blind Mice" isn't until next week-end: Loretta Young, Joel McCrea and a well-told story about three lovelies eager to meet life, love and a man with a million.

Monday and Tuesday, comes Robert Louis Stevenson's celebrated "Kidnapped," starring Warner Baxter and Freddie Bartholomew, who also did well in R. L. S.'s "Treasure Island."

And Wednesday and Thursday, Luise Rainer, she of the Academy Awards, is the loveliest girl of the South, in "Toy Wife," a story—so says Manager Frank Salasin—plashed against the heroic background of old world New Orleans"... with Melvyn Douglas and Robert Young.

EGYPTIAN

Herbert Marshall plays the husband and Virginia Bruce the second wife in "Woman Against Woman," which offers a new and arresting slant on the problems of divorce. Also featured in this picture which is playing at the Egyptian this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 12-13-14, is Mary Astor, enacting the woman who Herbert Marshall first married.

"Merrily We Live" returns to the Egyptian next Monday and Tuesday. This hilarious comedy stars Constance Bennett and Brian Aherne. Don't miss your last chance to see the best comedy of the season.

The sauciest escapade in the history of love, as gay as a Mardi Gras, with three delightful players and merry with the latest tunes, brings Don Ameche, Simone Simon and Robert Young to the Egyptian in "Josette." This entertaining feature is being shown next Wednesday and Thursday, August 17-18.

Robin Hood Dell

This Friday evening, Margaret Speaks, radio soprano, will be soloist at Robin Hood Dell, with Alfred Wallenstein, first cellist of the New York Philharmonic and music director WOR, as guest conductor.

Saturday night, Alvin Rudnitsky, fifteen-year-old Philadelphia violinist, who made his debut four years ago, will play the Bizet-Sarasati-Zimbalist "Carmen Fantasy" for violin. Mr. Wallenstein will again conduct.

On Monday night, Alexander Smallens conducting, the Dell will present an All-Wagnerian program, with Selma Amansky, distinguished dramatic soprano, as soloist.

For the season's closing concert Tuesday evening, with Alexander Smallens conducting, outstanding artists who were rained out during the season will appear: Jan Peerce, the celebrated American tenor; Rafael Druian, the young Philadelphia violinist, and Tilly Barmach, operatic star.

Hedgerow Theatre

Monday — "Roadside" by Lynn Riggs.

And then—Ferenc Molnar's "Lilium." Alternate casting used. Tuesday's cast: Harry Bellaver in the title role, also Dudley Vaughan, Miriam Phillips and Jasper Deeter. Wednesday's performance brings Joseph Taulane in the title role, with Arraminta Gulley, Miriam Phillips

Dr. William A. Pearson, of the Lakeview Apartments, was the guest of Colonel Louis Kolb, of Germantown, aboard his yacht the Carman for a week-end cruise. Dr. and Mrs.
Pearson will spend the week-end in the Pocomos at the Wiscasset Inn, where they will be the guest of Dr.
Pearson's sister, Dr. Jean Pearson
Randall.

Eugene Chaghorn, of Chestnut avenue, returned Saturday from a fifteen-day cruise to South America.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Price, and Miss Doris Price, of Merion road, Merion, returned the end of the week from a 2600 mile motor trip to Canada, where they stopped at Geo-rgan Bay, and through the Middle West. Mr. and Mrs. Price and their daughter will spend the week-end in Baltimore, where they will visit Mrs.
Price's mother, Mrs. George H. Elmer.

Ralph, of New York, spent the weekend in Ocean City.

Miss Dorothy Dunne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Dunne, Shur-ley road, is at Camp Oneika in the Pocomos. Her sister, Patsy, is spending the summer on a farm near Newark, Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller will have as their guests over the week-end, Mrs. Mueller's brothers,
Mr. Norman Kurzenkabe, of Hagerstown, Md.; Mr. Francis Kurzenkabe, of Chicago, and Mr. Paul Kurzen-kabe, of Harrisburg, who arrive this Friday to take part in the birthday celebration of their sister, Miss Flora Kurzenkabe, on Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Graves has returned to her home in the Parkview Apartments after a trip to Nova Scotia.

The Rev. C. Joseph Goodyear, of Reading, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Goodyear, of Avon road. His brother, Paul D. Goodyear, returned Sunday from Laport, Pa., where he has been spending a month convalescing from a recent illness.

Why Shouldn't I Take the Day Off

... when I can get St. Mary's
Laundry to do my wash?

I used to stay home every wash day to see that the work was properly done. Then one day I tried St. Mary's.
When my wash was returned, I could hardly believe my eyes . . . it was so fragrantly clean, so faultlessly white!
That settled it! No more wash day fuss for me . . .
instead, I mark up every Monday a holiday.

Camp Delmont

The parade grounds of Camp Delmont are a speedway today as the scouts enter their pet turtles in the Camp Delmont weekly turtle race. The event is held every Friday with the troop possessing the winning turtle winning a watermelon.

The scouts scour the woods for days before the race looking for flashy terrapins. The turtles are released inside a small circle and immediately head out for freedom. The first to cross an outside ring is declared the winner. The scouts give plenty of moral and vocal support to the flashy steeds.

The State Motor Police visited Camp Delmont Tuesday showing the scouts various jiu jitsu tricks, methods of handling firearms, and other interesting phases of the State Motor Police work.

Captain Henry's Show Boat was the theme of the Camp Delmont's annual staff show at Camp Delmont last night before 318 scouts from Valley Forge Council, who are spending a week there.

Quartets, gags, "mole-dramers," skits, mock ballets, the Delmont Big Apple, and many other humorous stunts comprise the major portion of the evening's program.

Seven scouts received awards at the last Delmont Court of Honor. Bob Watrous, winning merit badge; John Mraz, reptile study merit badge; Bob Rittenhouse, first year C.D.; J. Mraz, quartermaster training certificate; Bob Watrous, patrol leader training certificate; J. Vogel, landcraft training certificate; and Bob Watrous, Order of the Arrow.

MERION TROOP 2

On return of our troop from Camp Delmont, Mr. Bunting, our scoutmaster, left for a three-week vacation in the Poconos. During his leave Mr. Howe, our Troop Committee chairman, will take charge.

Next week a surprise meeting is planned. Mr. McVicker will return Monday from his vacation to assist in its management.

Fielding Howe, Jr., is in line for his canoeing merit badge, also he hopes to be awarded his Eagle rank at Dan Beard's Camp.

First Official Meeting

Of the thirty charter members of the Little Business Men's Association of Pennsylvania was held last Friday. Roland C. Hill, Ardmore, presided. Three principal objectives:

1. To obtain State aid for small merchants.
2. To secure representation on National Councils with big business.
3. To secure better credit for small business men.

The first official meeting of the 30 charter members will be held tonight to lay the groundwork for a State-wide organization drive.

This is the association that caused the State Highway Department to postpone for at least a year the paving of Lancaster pike from City Line through Ardmore.

Commissioners Fred C. Peters, Foster C. Hillegass and James W. Potter announce the starting of operations on Wyndon avenue, in Lower Merion Township, as of August 3.

This is a County-Aid project extending from Merion avenue to Roberts road. The estimated cost is $9,300, of which the county pays 60 per cent and the township 40 per cent.

CHEVROLET

"The Six Supreme"

LEADS THE FIELD IN SALES
BECAUSE IT LEADS IN VALUE

CHEVROLET

In a year of greater motor car values . . . a year when people are demanding the most for their money in everything they buy . . . people are giving Chevrolet clear-cut leadership over all other low-priced cars and trucks, and, in fact, over the entire automobile industry.

Value is always the victor, and, again in 1938, value is enabling Chevrolet—The Six Supreme—to win nationwide supremacy in automobile sales!

The latest official new car registration figures, compiled by R. L. Polk & Company, show that Chevrolet is leading all other makes of cars, regardless of type, size or price, by tens of thousands of deliveries.

For this we have to thank our millions of Chevrolet friends who have been quick to recognize the outstanding quality and outstanding dollar-value of this smarter, newer, more modern low-priced car.

These men and women have checked all makes of cars and all phases of car value—including style, performance, comfort, safety—and they are declaring in favor of the new 1938 Chevrolet by a decisive majority.

May we take this opportunity to thank Chevrolet owners and prospective owners most sincerely for their friendship, and may we make the following suggestion to you:

Buy where the majority of people are buying. . . Visit your nearest Chevrolet dealer and invest in this most popular of all motor cars. . . Choose a new 1938 Chevrolet—The Six Supreme!

"You'll be AHEAD with a CHEVROLET!"

Notes from Nearby

The Social Security Board reported last week on the names in its records. There are 470,190 Smiths and 348,530 Johnsons. Browns, Williams and Millers run over 200,000 each. The shortest name is E; the longest Xenogonakopoulos.—From the "New York Times."

More persons were dependent upon State assistance grants or Federal work relief in Pennsylvania during June than in any other month since July, 1933, the Department of Public Assistance reported Tuesday. The State relief administration showed that during June 1,747,000 persons or approximately 17 per cent of the Commonwealth's population look to the combined State and Federal agencies for subsistence.

More than 2,100 high school graduates already have applied for admission to the incoming freshman class at the Pennsylvania State College, but because of limitations of the physical plant and the present size of the faculty, just 1,405 can be accepted. William S. Hoffman, registrar, said this week that he had already admitted over 900 freshmen. This figure exceeds by 100 the number of admissions to the college granted at the same time last year.

Now they're dyeing grass on golf courses to make sure it stays green. Nervous golfers had complained that some insecticides used on greens turned the grass brown. This, they said, created a mental hazard which spoiled their game. So experts at the Department of Agriculture, working with the U. S. Golf Association, have combined an insecticide with a green dye.

Marine Corps recruiting headquarters in Philadelphia announced Monday that the Eastern Recruiting Division of the Marine Corps will accept 200 qualified young men between 18 and 25 for enlistment in the Marine Corps during August. Over 500 new men were accepted by the Marine Corps last month, and enlistments will be continued indefinitely to bring the Corps up to its newly authorized strength of 18,000 enlisted men.

A new branch office of the Automobile Club of Philadelphia, A. A. A., will be opened August 25 at 71 E. Lancaster pike, Ardmore. The office adjoins the Lower Merion Township Administration Building. F. E. Bantyne, general manager, says the new office will cater to the club's growing Main Line membership.

Encouraged by the enthusiastic reception accorded the recent tennis tournament held on the Radnor High School courts, officials in charge of the layout have arranged to hold the annual Main Line championship tournament here week after next. Usually held at Ardmore, the title matches this year will be played on the Windermere avenue site. Play will continue the entire week of August 15.

The tournament, which in the past

94 Pc. Read Ads in Weekly Newspapers

Ninety-four per cent of the people who read a small community newspaper say that they read the advertising contained in it, according to a survey made in Hopewell, Va., by A. Robbins, Jr., of the Hopewell News.

Although this survey covers only one town, it is believed probable that the results are fairly indicative of other towns in which small newspapers are published.

In regard to advertising, in addition to finding that the advertising is read by most of his subscribers, he found that 69 per cent admitted that they were influenced in their buying by the advertising in his newspaper.

He also found that 42 per cent said they had no favorite stores, indicating that they shop around for the best values and also shop through the newspaper.

Picnic Don'ts

1. Don't drink water from a stream—use approved water.
2. Don't bathe in pools or streams that may be contaminated.
3. Don't swim immediately after having a meal—wait one hour, preferably two hours.
4. Don't dive in shallow water.
5. Don't over-exercise—especially in the heat of the day.
6. Don't expose yourself to the sun for too long a time.
7. Don't walk through underbrush, but stay on paths, to avoid poison ivy.
8. Don't over-eat.
9. Don't leave rubbish after the picnic.

attracted such well known court luminaries as Foster Hammonds, Bill Nassau, Henry Moore and the Fischer brothers, will draw players from all sections of Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Dr. Herb Fischer, winner of last week's local tourney, will participate, as will George Dunn, seeded No. 1 player in the Philadelphia district. A host of others are expected to swell the list and make the engagement one of the most attractive in local sports annals.

Entries may be left with Peter McHugh, local tennis instructor, who was in charge of the latest title play. McHugh, who tutors at Sarasota, Fla., during the winter months, has been making a name for himself in a big way locally this summer, and the staging of the Main Line title play in Wayne largely may be attributed to his efforts.

Winner of the men's singles title last Saturday was Dr. Herb Fischer, who, with his brother, Carl, is one of the best known courtmen in the east. To win Dr. Fischer downed Bill DeWitt, 10-8, 1-6, 6-3, after DeWitt had beaten Dick Crook, 6-1, 7-5, D. Millar, the other semi-finalist, fell before Fischer, 6-2, 6-0.

The Fischer-DeWitt match was a honey of a bout with the issue in doubt until the very last point. Fischer was extended to win the first set, 10-8, and was soundly beaten in the second, but rallied to take the deciding set and win the crown.

A Plug and Fly Casting

Contest will be held at Willow Grove Park Lake, August 27. Members of clubs and families affiliated with the Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs are invited. Elaborate prizes will be distributed to winners.

Here's a most unusual chance to get Sherwin-Williams famous Enameloid at a specially reduced price. The full pint can is now available for only 49¢. It's a bargain you can't afford to miss.

With a brush and a can of this wonderful decorative Enamel you'll be ready to brighten up with gorgeous color your tables and chairs, woodwork and toys, kitchen and bathroom walls!

Anyone can apply Enameloid. It levels out to a smooth gloss finish that shows no tell-tale brush marks.

Just one coat covers solidly.

Remarkably quick-drying - Enameloid dries "to the touch" in four to six hours. The brilliant high gloss of this beautiful enamel means a readily washable surface.

Now... before doing another thing-cut out and fill in the coupon. Presented at our store, it's worth money to you.
